ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD-1 GRAVESHID RACE TRACE, Sept. 22.—Less than 2,500 people attended the races at Gravesend to-day. The card, though made up of fields of tair size, was unattractive and excited but little enthusiasm. The only fix-Sure was the Clinton Stakes for three-yearolds, and this looked a pionic for Yorkville

The weather was threatening, and no doubt this kept many from the course. The track quence having failen in this section.

The opening event was a dash of five and a half priengs for two-year-olds. Lovelace war an even-money favorite. He won, out to I chance, came out of the bunch in the nearly nipped Lovelace on the post. Lawless, a 15 to 1 shot, was third.

The second race was nothing if not sensational. Stonenell and Candelabra opened up even favorites. The latter was quickly backed down, while Stonenell receded to 3 to 1 at the close. Parvenue Won His Eighth Successive Bracket Gravesend Yesterday.

The old rumor that the Brooklyn Jockey control has been revived. Whether there is any foundation for this report or not the writer is unable to learn. The Dwyers are both non-committal, and their intimate triends deny any knowledge of the Dwyers intentions. It is a fact, however, that Mr. M. F. Dwyer is tired of the methods used by the Board of Control. and he is anxious to withdraw the Brooklyn Club from that organization. Mr. Dwyer, like many another horseman, chafes under the books that the Board of Control has placed upon them in regard to Guttenburg. They maned race there without incurring the displacative of the Board and helps without by the displacative of the Board and helps without without or the strength while of the least and helps without we will be a serious to the strength while the strength while of the strength whi port, David Martin, of Philadelphia; ex-Police of the Board and being virtually ruled off. 18 Justice Jacob M. The centre of attraction was Patterson, Guttenburg. It is seven months of the who was to full of indignation for utterance, purses or six months of rich states. The but the writer doubts if any such action will be taken.

Jeter Walden is in a bad state of mind. Il ing the campaign.

Reed, Martin, Davenport, Hackett and Patterson stood in full view of everybody, apparently with the intention to refute the dreadful slander about Patterson.

They stuck their heads close together, and after a while Martin took Davenport's arm and accompanied him to the Twenty-fourth street entrance of the hotel where he left him.

Then Martin returned and visited Hackett in his room with Patterson, while keed wended his way to his room in solitude. will be remembered that two weeks ago Mr. against a political pull. Last Tuesday even-ing ne met President Dwyer and Mr. J. G. E. Lawrence, and in a fitten-minute talk Mr. Walden freed his mind of the opinions he held concerning the Board of Control, the Brooklyn Jockey Club and the turf in gen-eral.

She carried top weight of 120 pounds and gave away big lumps to Demuth, Leonawell, Kildeer, Van Basen, Fidelio and others. She made all her own running and won in a canter in the fast time of 2.014. On this performance Heckon should hold any filly in the country safe. Wyndham Walden, who returned from Kurope yes'erday with A. H. Morris, was greatly pleased over Reckon's improvement.

St. Felix pulled up slightly lame after his good win yesterday, and an examination showed that the outer side of his leg was badly bruised. This will no doubt necessitate the colt being laid up, which is a pity, because he is just beginning to show his true form.

Demuth looked a good thing in the Wood-lawn Handicap, but Narvice seemed totally unable to get any speed out of the brute. The handicappers figured out Demuth for real jam should Taral ride, but they let him severely alone when Narvice was posted as his rider.
